Project coordinator / Contact person:

State name, address, e-mail and telephone to the person that Ekhagastiftelsen should contact. It is to this address that we will send mail.

Do not use more than the 7 rows visible in the form.

Managing body / Person:

This is the body/organization/person who is responsible for and keeps accounts for the grant – the official applicant.

If managing body is not a person write the organizations name on the first row and department/institution etc on the following rows (see example above).

When the official applicant (managing body) is a person both address fields should be the same.

In many cases the addresses in both fields will be the same, but sometimes the contact person may have different address information from the official applicant.

Do not use more than the 7 rows visible in the form.

Summary description of the project (aim/purpose, implementation, significance/importance) (3)

The summary of the project has to describe the application in a popular scientific way, meaning that you should not need to have detailed knowledge of the subject in order to understand the application.

It is also important to describe in which ways the project contributes to public health, why the application is relevant for Ekhagastiftelsen and how it matches our prioritized research areas. For example how does the application contribute to improving the self-healing capabilities?

Do not write more text than is visible in the form.

Enter keywords that characterize the project. The keywords will be used for searches in a separate register.

Keywords (4)

application, research, organic agriculture, alternative medicine

Applications can be made for up to three year long projects. The budget is to be further detailed in the project description - see budget instructions.

Summary of costs per year applied for at Ekhagastiftelsen (5) Amounts to be stated in SEK (Swedish Krona) – detailed budget to be submitted as part of the project description.
